AGENDA

NJASA has designed and expanded The Power of Legal Series into a 6-part series.
The goal is to attract more members to attend by shortening the sessions to 60 minutes and provide a focused, specific legal discussion.

9:15am-9:30am The meeting will open; Registrants will be admitted into the waiting room. Program Overview-Introductions

Frank Borelli, NJASA Director of Professional Development

9:30am-10:35am Program: Our presenters this morning will focus their attention on the following topics:

1. Critical issues districts are facing in regards to transgender students. Review the guidance and for those without guidance and for those without guidance, what is the current state of the law.
2. Continued discussion regarding "cell phone policy".
3. Book Banning, might this be a problem in your district?
Discuss policy, pitfalls and issues that districts are facing.

Beth L. Finkelstein, Esq., Assistant Counsel, NJASA Legal Dept.

Patrick Carrigg, Esq. Partner, Lenox Law Firm
