

This free webinar will help district teams with:

- Developing an effective plan for the management and tracking of federal stimulus funding
- Creating targeted strategies to recuperate learning loss and accelerate learning for all students, including a focus on social-emotional learning
- Finding strategies and resources that will set your district up for success

Please register in advance for this meeting. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar. For those who can't attend, a link of the recorded webinar will be provided.

Join Us!

📅 Thursday, May 20

🕒 9:30AM–11:30AM

Register Here

ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Jimmy Brehm, Ed.D., is the VP of Academic Planning and Solution Development at Scholastic, where he helps schools and districts around the country create and implement literacy instruction plans. Prior to joining Scholastic, Dr. Brehm was the Chief Academic Officer at Woodford County Schools in Kentucky. He has more than 14 years of experience in public education, excelling in roles such as a director of curriculum and instruction and as an elementary school principal. He started his career as a fifth-grade classroom teacher.

Ron Mirr has been instrumental in helping schools and families work together to improve learning for more than 40 years. Now president of the Center for Active Family Engagement and his own firm, RM Consulting, Mirr is continuing the work that he began in 1981—helping schools identify and address barriers to learning that prevent students from being physically or emotionally present in the classroom, connecting families to mental health and other supportive services, and partnering with educators to make school a place where students feel welcomed, safe, and valued.