Are you:

PREPARED TO LEAD YOUR SCHOOLS, DISTRICTS AND COMMUNITIES IN THE CHALLENGING CONVERSATIONS AROUND RACE, EQUITY, POVERTY, POLITICS, AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT IN TODAY'S COMPLEX SOCIAL-CULTURAL-POLITICAL WORLD?

equipped with the critical problem-solving and decision-making skills needed to make ethical and effective choices as a part of your daily life in your school or district setting?

This summer the Delaware Valley Consortium for Excellence and Equity is again hosting a two-day institute for district and school leaders that will focus on effectively addressing the “real-life” dilemmas and challenges of leading for equity. We will offer a variety of learning experiences led by nationally and locally recognized leaders in this work and give you a forum to enhance the skills you will need to make ethical and effective decisions. You will also have exciting opportunities for connection with colleagues from across the region to unpack and share impactful solutions to REAL dilemmas by engaging in formal and informal collaborative learning sessions.
